Scene 1

Today, the family get together to celebrate the grandmother' s sixtieth birthday. After lunch, everyone is chatting with grandmother in the living room.

Scene 2

After a decade, the grandmother can no longer take care of herself. And her abilities to see, hear and walk nearly fail. So her three kids are holding a family meeting to discuss how to deal with it. And the little boy is eavesdropping aside.

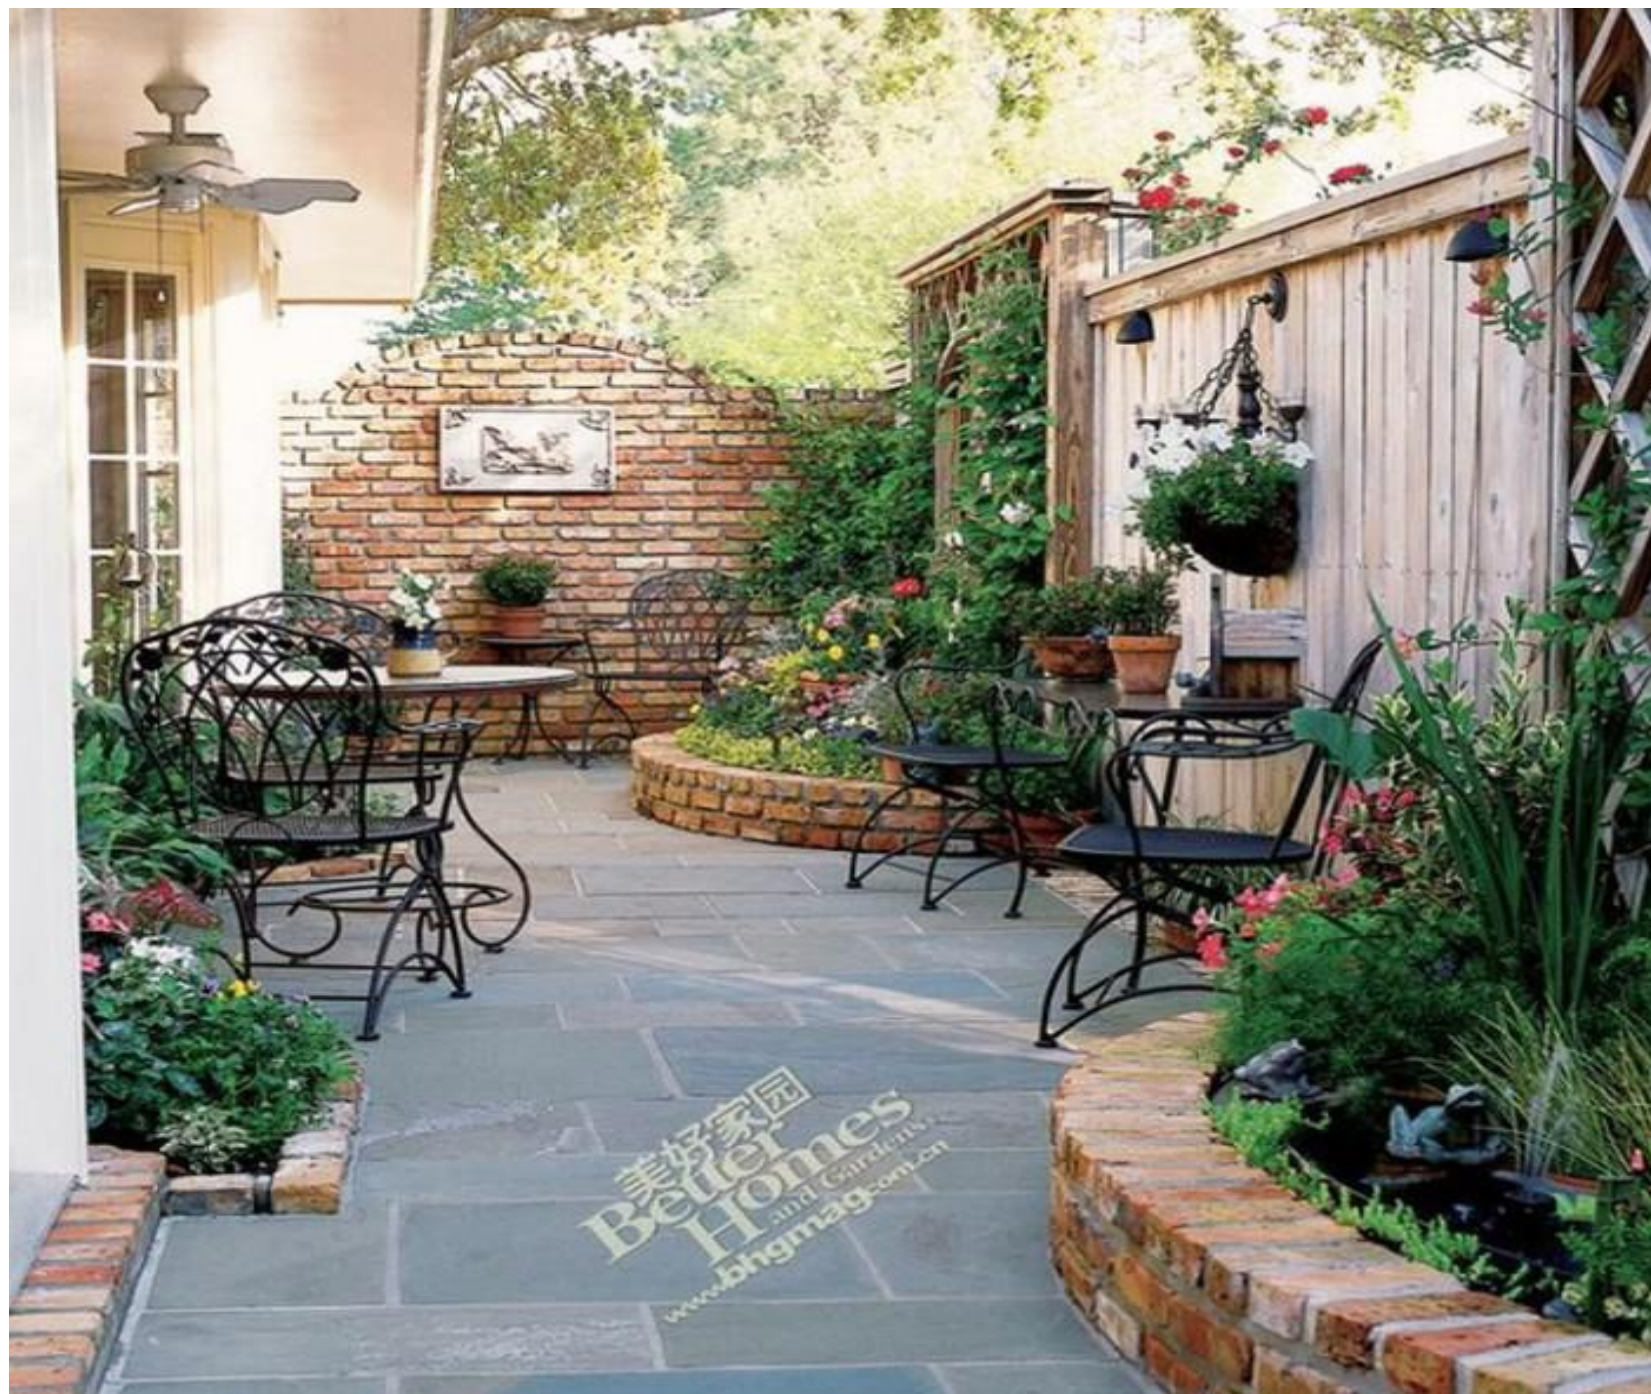

Scene 3

Then the mother goes back to home with her little boy. After the bath, they are watching TV in the living room. The little boy is very confused that the mother, rather than the uncle, takes care of his grandmother, so he asks his mother...

Scene 4

Five years later, the family get together to celebrate the grandmother' s birthday in a yard.

As a saying goes , “ Filial piety tops all virtues .
” Only being willing to devote, like the mother, can we get happiness. And someday, everyone will be old and feeble, who should be taken care of by other families. So all of us are supposed to love families and not forget the virtue which is called devotion.

Thank you
