If we want to understand a movie better, we should blend in with a movie. The way of blending in with a movie is that we can image that we were the heroes or heroines and we were experiencing what happened in the movies. Then what would we do? Would we be for or against their choices?

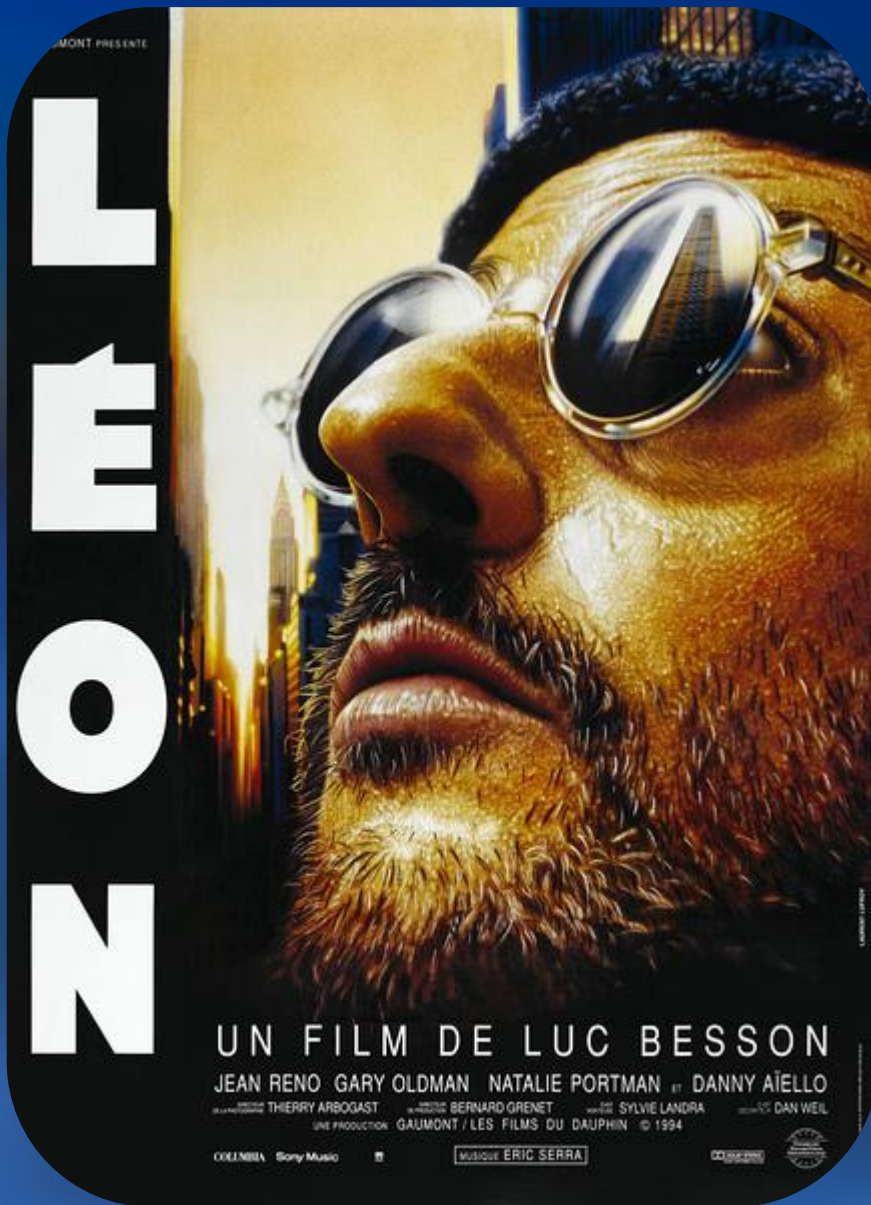

Combine Life with Movie

What you have experienced, or what you are experiencing, even if what you will experience, all of them may happen in the movie. You should taste them carefully, so you may predict your future. And how deep your life can be, it depends whether you can notice some tiny details in life and whether you will pay for your life. Everyone's life is wonderful, being like song, while life like drama. Movies like Life Lessons, the more thorough you see, the more open-minded you will be, and your life will have fewer setbacks. The Meaning of Tasting Life in Movies

Watching movies is not only a kind of visual enjoyment, but also a method of understanding on life. We can feel powerful force from movies by watching a plot, listening a song even an actor's line. Life is just like a movie, everyone acts different kinds of plots. The plot may be flat or rough, but we must act all through because we are the leading actors. A movie's subject and content is always from our daily life but higher than life. It is meaningful for us to taste our life when we watching a movie. Only then will a movie show its real value — — not for entertainment but for tasting our life.

FILM REVIEW

Léon is a movie directed by a famous director Luc Besson, which talked about a fight between justice and evil, love and hate. It can be called a tragedy. The professional killer Leon and a mature little girl Mathilda met in an accident. After Mathilda's family members were killed by a group of evil police, Leon adopted Mathilda and taught her how to "clean" at the request of Mathilda.

In this movie, police are not justice as we always think, killers are not always bad. We can feel love and warmth between Leon and Mathilda. Killers are not always crazy about killing, for Leon, killer only means a career which he had to do without choice. "No women, no kids." is his belief.

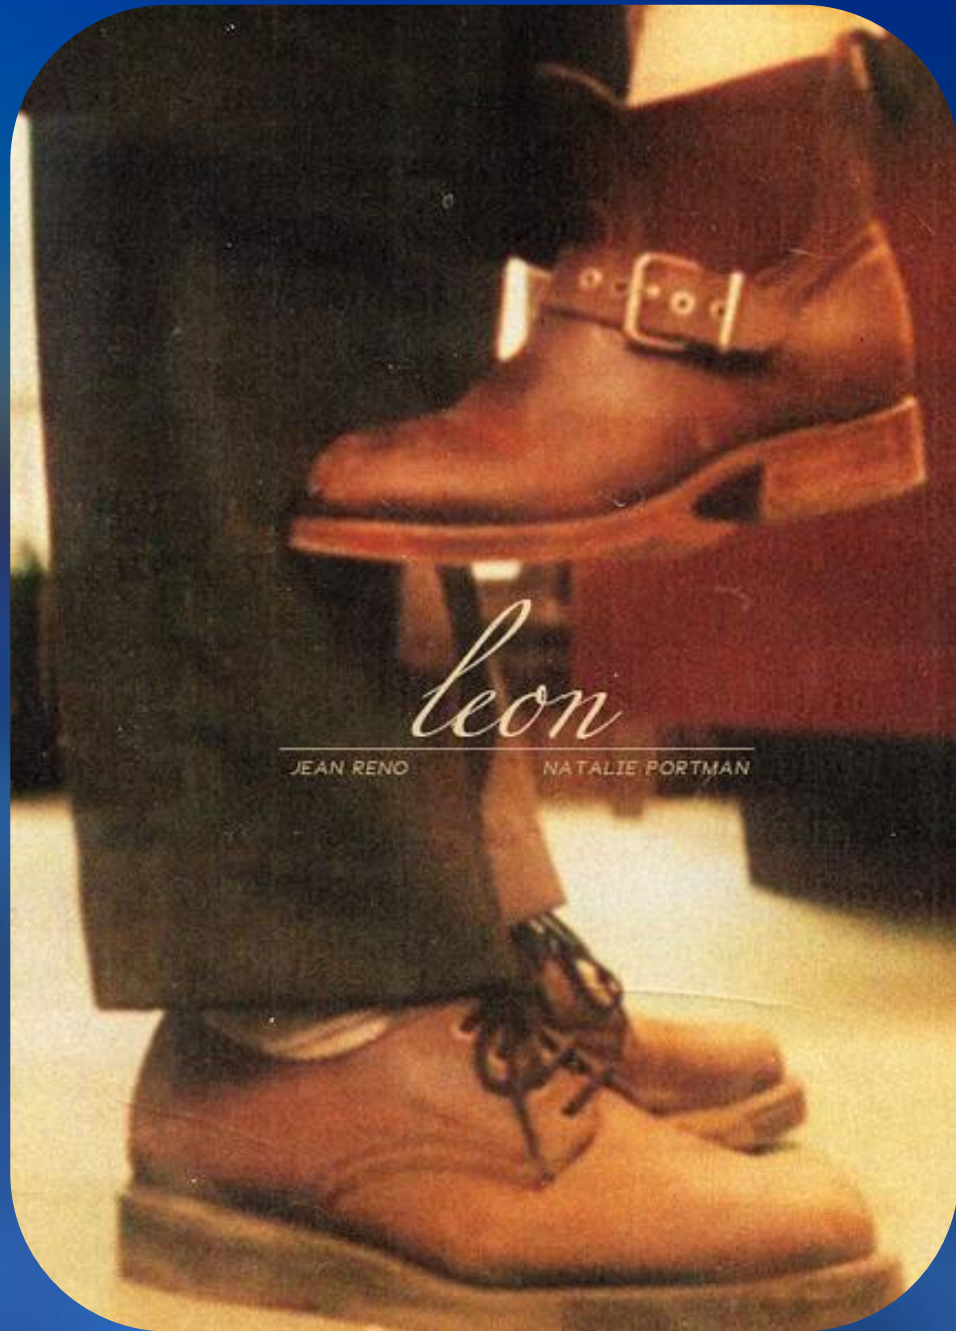

Léon

FILM REVIEW

We were deeply touched by the charm of the killer because of him. Mathilda was attracted by the personality charm of Leon, and so do we. In the end, Leon dead. The violation of ethics in the film love that shook the indifference audience. This kind of emotion became Leon the most precious thing in the world of two people, but this feeling of not to be permitted by society glows to acme, and it was responsible for the film's biggest tragedy.

We can see a different kind of love in this movie. Loneliness is the biggest pain in the world, and love is the best pill to heal

HIGHLIGHTS

Léon is a movie which is impressing in some parts.

The first one is as follow:

Léon: Mathilda... Don't you ever do that again or I will break your head...you got that?

Mathilda: Okay.

Léon: I don't work like that. It's not professional...There is rules.

Mat Hilda: Okay.

Léon: And stop saying" okay "all the time! Okay??!!!

Mathilda: Okay.

Léon: Good...

After watching this movie, we could see Mathilda always answered Léon's question using 'okay'. Leon is a cleaner full of charm, skilled and efficiently in the missions, carefree and romantic in daily life.

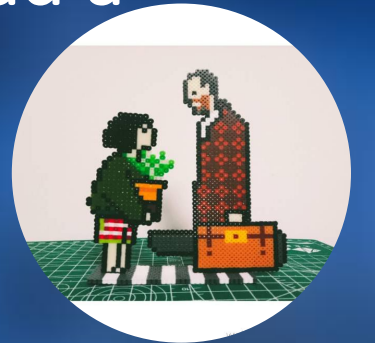

HIGHLIGHTS

The second one is as follow:

Mathilda: Is life always this hard, or is it just when you're a kid?

Léon: Always like this.

What Léon said is right. Life is always hard, but we could change it through living hard. I take the firm position that we can lead a happy life as long as we try our best to live.

HIGHLIGHTS

The third one is as follow:

Leon: You need some time to grow up a little.

Mathilda: I finished growing up. Leon. I just get older.

Leon: For me it's the opposite. I'm old enough. I need time to grow up.

These words are worth thinking because sometimes we may believe that we grow up by getting old. However, it's wrong and we will need to grow up at any stage of age.

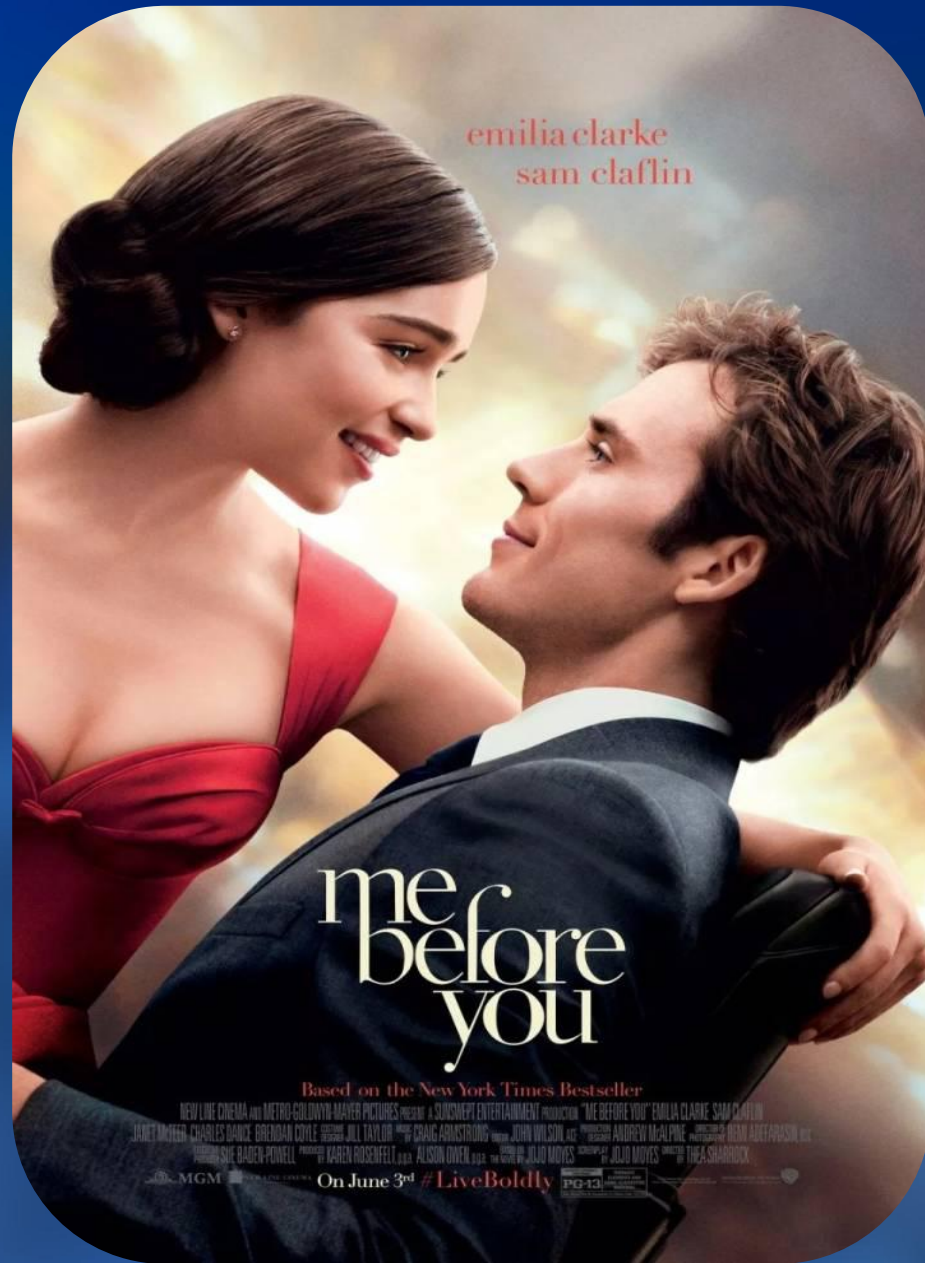

At last, it's always the same thing. It's when you start to become really afraid of death... that you learn to appreciate life. These words make me impressed and we also do something like what has been mentioned above. Therefore, it's necessary that we should see our life as values and don't treat it at random.

FILM REVIEW

There is no doubt that it is a moving film.

Before Wale, Louise had “nothing”, she just had to support a family in a small town. Also she can't go to the university of Manchester to major in fashion and dressed colorful clothes at home which had her own style. After Wale, she watched the horse racing, went to the concert, made a plan to travel. Finally she dressed in elegant and bought a perfume which is suitable for her. Just boldly move on.

For Wale, before Louise, life is hopeless. And how large the waves play on the sea, how he desperate in wheelchair. How fulfilling the life before the car accident he expected, how strong the idea of death after the car accident. The birthday film is Wale's meaning life, it is also the memory when he live in the wheelchair.

FILM REVIEW

After Louise, he still said the words to Louise by the sea, he loved the life before accident very much, even if the love also can't save it, so no one can shake the idea of death. It is despairing but it is truth. Not everyone can consider the love is more important than the meaning life. When the old days didn't come back again, he wanted nothing.

The ending is sad, and the Wale's final choice frees himself with the respect for life. He also helped Louise, he gave her a splendid life which default by the unfailing society. Louise is also a lucky girl because she loves such an excellent man as Wale. She will have a bright life in the future with Wale's deep love.

HIGHLIGHTS

The part that they took a holiday together touched me most.

Wale: I have to told you something.

Lou: I know. I know about Switzerland. I have known, for months.

Lou: Listen, I know that this is not how you would have chosen it. But I can make you happy!

Wale: No.

Lou: What?

Wale: No, Clark. I get that this could be a good life. But it's not 'my life'.

HIGHLIGHTS

Wale: It's not even close. You never saw me before, I loved my life, I've really loved it. I can't be the kind of man who just accepts it.

Lou: Yes, but you're not giving it a chance, you're not giving me a chance. I, have become a whole new person these last six months, because of you.

Wale: I know. And that is why I can't have you tied to me. I don't want you to miss all the things that someone else could give you.

This movie clip exactly gets my tears. Obviously, they loved each other. However, Wale is paralyzed and he knows clearly that he can't live like this. If I was him, I would also make my decision to die. It is a problem about self-esteem.

HIGHLIGHTS

This movie clip exactly gets my tears. Obviously, they loved each other. However, life is not always satisfying as we want. Wale is paralyzed and he knows clearly that he can't live like this. If I was him, I would also make my decision to die. It is a problem about self-esteem. Maybe some people will say that living is everything. From my perspective, there always exists something more important than one's life such as self-esteem.

Another thing is that you could really love someone but completely against what they do. In this movie clip, we can see clearly that Louisa loves Wale. But her thoughts are totally different from Wale's. They will argue with each other and they still love deeply.
