Unequal
love

Why can't we love our parents as they do?

How to deal with the problem?

Some tricks, some fallings,
we all grow from the pains and scars. Because of parents' warm company, we can pick up our bravery and courage to face problems.

每次爸爸讲故事的时候.....

娃娃们都会很专注.....

- Children really love the fanciful fairy tales. Listening to the familiar sound, which produces a sense of safety, they are easier to fall into a sweet dream.

谁家的可可

The angry mother is always reluctant to punish her naughty kids, no matter how messy the situation is.

Sometimes we say or do things politely to the strangers, however, we seldom say “love” or “thanks” to our dear family members.

Sometimes, we shout the door loudly because we get angry easily, while our parents patiently listen to our demands whether they are in good mood.

Empty Nest Elderly

- Now Christmas day is around the corner, let's watch a video about a German family gathering together to celebrate the biggest festival.
- <http://v.qq.com/x/page/f0176f695hp.html>

- Just as the video shows, many people are paying little attention to the old, which can lead serious consequences.
 - First, the elderly often feel lonely and depressed if there is no child with whom they can talk, and this can have a bad effect on their mental health. Second, the aged parents with no child by their sides may cause a lot of troubles in their daily life due to the diseases in their age.

- As an old saying goes:” The tree wants to be still—but the wind is blowing; the son wants to show his respect—but his parents have gone.”
 - The best scenery of the world was the road to home. Parents are just like tall trees which silently give us protection and help. When we become old, will we be guilty for what we’ve ignored today?

Mother's Love

Wang Guozhen

We love mother,
But not as mother loves us.
Our love is only a stream,
But mother's love is an ocean indeed.

Our pleasure is the smile on mother's face.
Our suffering is the sorrow in mother's eyes.

We can go far and far away.
But we can never be away
From mother's mind.

Why can't we love
our parents as they do?

Reason One

- First, raising children is a human born ability, whereas supporting parents is a moral demand. It is very common that natural selection is wildly used in elder animals. And human also follows the rule subconsciously. However, what differs us human from animals, from this aspect, may be supporting our parents.

A hand is holding a red, knitted heart-shaped object. Inside the red heart is a smaller, white heart. The background is a light blue gradient.

Reason Two

- Second, we take their love for granted. Because they are our parents, sometimes we are used to their selfless love. We are used to treating them casually and impatiently. For instance, we may be deeply grateful about a free meal provided by a stranger, but ignore the hundreds and hundreds of meals provided by our parents.

A red knitted hat with a white pom-pom is centered in the background. The hat has a textured, ribbed pattern and a small white pom-pom on top. The background is a light blue gradient.

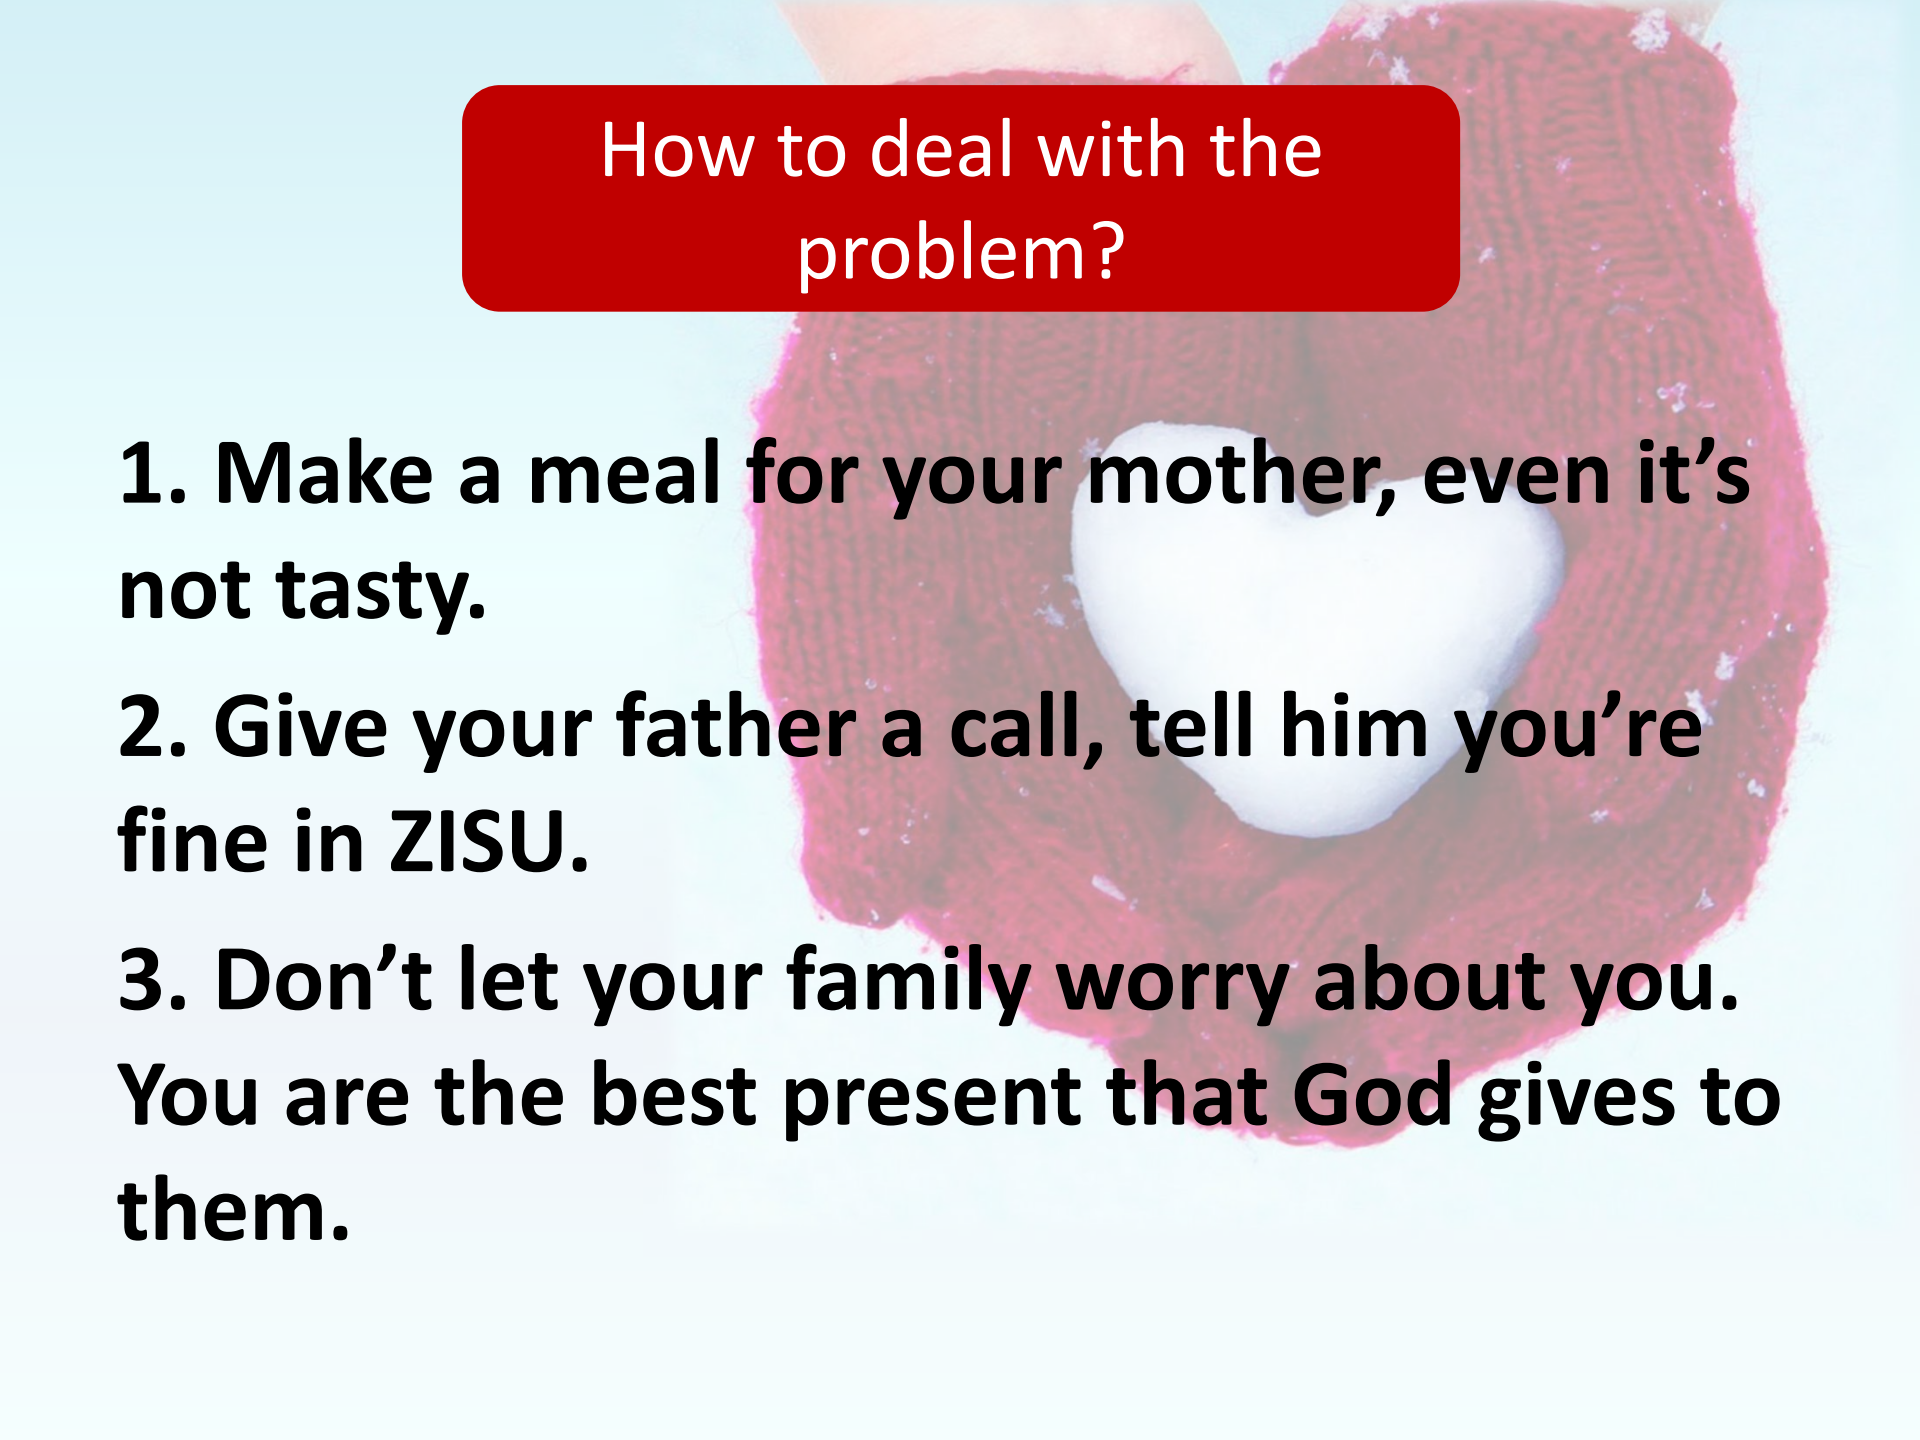

Reason Three

- Third, there is a generation gap, big or small, between us and our parents. We may differ in many aspects such as interests, philosophy, values and ways of doing things, etc. Thus, sometimes most of us might find it boring to talk to our parents, then in-depth communications become less and less.

Reason Four

- Fourth, it's natural that parents require nothing but devoted a lot. It is a thinking set that hands down from generation to generation, and forms unconsciously. Perhaps parents sometimes want their children to company them or chat with them for a little while, but most of them won't speak out their requirements. So we have little concern for what they want.

How to deal with the problem?

- 1. Make a meal for your mother, even it's not tasty.
- 2. Give your father a call, tell him you're fine in ZISU.
- 3. Don't let your family worry about you. You are the best present that God gives to them.

4. When we are at home, we can talk with them about our study, daily life, or sweet memories of the past. Our parents will be happy and surprised if we do something for them, even just walking with them, or having a meal with them.

A pair of hands is shown from the top, holding a white heart. The hands are wearing red, textured gloves. The background is a light blue gradient. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

5. We should respect our families. If we have a quarrel with them, we should instantly find ways to deal with it, rather than breaking out into curses. When it happens, we should calm down immediately, and take a deep breath, then solve it later.

He is the happiest ,be he King or peasant, who finds peace in his home. (Johann Wolfgang von Goethe, German dramatist and poet). That's right, it's true for everyone, a peaceful home is the best gift for us.

I hope that everybody can enjoy the warm love, and at the same time respect your parents and turn your gratefulness into actions!
